

The Northwest Atlantic Seabird Catalog

May 22, 2018

Kaycee Coleman

Surveys in the database

- There are 392 surveys accounted for in the dataset table
  - 306 surveys are in the database
  - 29 in our possession in various stages of progress
  - 43 being requested/investigated/or are yet to happen
  - 14 are unlikely to be acquired or unobtainable

How many records do we have?

643,725 records of observations total

532,741 records of birds (excluding landbirds)

66,250 records of fish

22,756 records labeled as other (Marine debris, bats, sargassum, etc.)

8,051 records of marine mammals

6,972 records of birds denoted as landbirds

4,635 records of turtles

2,087 records of boats

233 records of bugs

These records span across 68 different years

There are 6,972 records for 199 different landbird types in the database spanning much further out than we realized

Maps were put together by Randy Dettmers and Eric Leflore

